East High on the Air

East High needs no introduction, for its fame is known over all the world. Still, we wish to broadcast a few facts about East to show you what a wonderful school it really is.

Our school has maintained its spirit even in times of adversity. East High is strong because faculty and students alike are always in there fighting to keep it that way. Time and time again it has been proven that East has an undying and unconquerable spirit. It is our responsibility to see that this fine spirit does not perish.

Among outstanding features of our school are its traditions. Some of these are: Anniversary Day observance, Memorial Day outdoor assembly in which memorial stones are decorated, Alumni assemblies,—known to all!—and May Day assemblies on the campus. These traditions have been enlarged upon and enriched throughout the years by enthusiastic students and faculty members.

East High itself is an attractive building and has a beautiful campus. We are indeed proud of our building and grounds. These alone ought to inspire each of us to bring honor to East High.

Our school was erected "For the Service of Humanity" and certainly no better motto could be used; for from the very beginning, this was the chief concern of those who first conceived East High.

Should we not then broadcast to every one the fame of this our school? Yes, but more than this, we should take the motto of our school . . . work "For the Service of Humanity."

Our Studio

This beautiful school is the body of all the fine achievements of our students. One seems to be inspired just by looking at the sturdy, gray building, surrounded by spacious grounds. In warm weather many pupils can be seen strolling around our lovely campus. The familiar old elm tree at the corner of the school grounds is seen, and also within vision is the flagpole. Over the mammoth entrance our famous motto, "For the Service of Humanity" is seen. One sometimes gazes upon the cornerstone bearing the number which shows our building was built in the year 1910. This, our studio, is the open door of opportunity to future success.

MR. O. G. PRICHARD, Principal

MR. D. Q. WILLIAMS, Vice Principal

The Guiding Lights

East High School has something to be proud of in the faculty, office staff, and nurse. In training, scholarship, personality, and leadership, these persons are among the finest.

Much credit should go to Mr. O. G. Prichard, capable principal and respected leader of East High. He guides and directs all the activities during the year and keeps the whole school running smoothly. This is a tremendous task, but our principal performs it with great efficiency. We feel that Mr. Prichard deserves all the praise possible, and we know that the students of East

High certainly do appreciate his conscientious efforts to promote our fine school.

We are proud of Miss Agnes Helmreich, cheerful East High social leader and girls' advisor. She studies the girls' problems and helps them to adjust themselves to various situations. In addition, she works with the ladies of the P.T.A. as well as with many parents individually. Miss Helmreich directs the school social program, advises the seniors and student council, and in general has a position that requires a vast amount of tact, perseverance, and skill.

We want to praise Mr. D. Q. Williams for his splendid leadership as vice-principal and boys' advisor of East High. He helps solve many problems of the boys, arranges and schedules our school sports, and directs night school. Mr. Williams, one of our most outstanding leaders, is a busy, capable, likeable administrator of whom we are all proud.

East High also deeply appreciates the efficient work of the office staff and nurse: Mrs. Margaret McGaffee, registrar; Miss Dorothy Steffens, secretary; and Mrs. Alice Clark, nurse.

Information Please

This is a program of questions and answers. their labors are assemblies, clubs, programs, and Answering questions is the occupation of the faculty. These teachers have pledged themselves to work for the good of others, and they are doing a fine job of serving.

The faculty works long and hard—in school and at home also. They are always glad to give individuals assistance and help. Some results of class projects.

For these functions and for the abundant knowledge obtained with the help of these teachers, we take this opportunity to thank them sincerely and say to them: "You have inspired us to do good deeds."

Your School

By Elna Nielsen

What does your school mean to you?
Stately building, columns too,
Where drudgingly we go each day,
Begrudge each moment we must stay,
A prison holding us until
Some dull requirements we fulfill;
Traditional things we all must do,
Is this what East High means to you?

Or does it mean to you instead
Flashes of glory—black and red,
A football game we won last year,
The junior-senior prom so near,
Letter-sweaters, saddle shoes,
Is it the glamour that you choose?
Empty will be your dreams and ways,
If these alone make high school days.

Or do we find our school a place
Of learning love for every race;
A school where we are taught to learn
So all our lives we may discern
The wrong from right, the false from true
Is this what your school means to you?
Our school can only that gift leave,
As you will give, so you receive.

Class Prophecy

Flash! June 6, 1956. This is Wayne Easter, your favorite common-tater giving you a blow by blow description of the unveiling of Mary Anne Gebhardt's breath-taking portrait of Byron Werges. "By" has rocked the nation with his invention of the new lipstick-proof necktie which has netted him $20,000,000 profit in three weeks.

All of the famous East High Alumni are here on this tenth anniversary of their graduation. Stand back, please—here comes Paul Sloan who has just set a mile record in his rush to get here—Paul's new record is 1:9.56. Two paces behind I see Jerri Harrison waving her golf club and tennis racket—racket, that is. Nadine Ritchhart, famous lawyer, is to unveil the case containing the picture. Attention, please, a 42 gun salute by Gene Ackleson, Emil Arbtin, and Bill Gnade.

To commemorate the occasion Gerald Rygh will give a short lecture on early Latin art in Latin. James Hedlund of Hedlund Casualty Co. is trying to sell a $45,000 policy to the Gustafson Art Co. owned by Art Gustafson. Gloria Spillers is in there plugging for a good international art organization.

Please ladies, don't rush, stand back. Make way for the Lily Whiter Corporation. Russ Stonier, Joan Armann, and John Lingenfelter are circling this huge arena atop their red and black tractors. This place smells of Codner Corsages. His newest is "Garlic Delight". Bob Mohr is peddling June '46 Quills throughout the audience. What's happening in the southwest corner of the arena? Peggye McGillivray, Kella Stone, Mary Weeks, and Mary Jean Davidson are modeling the latest 1956 bathing suits.

Patsy Greider is covering the story for the East High Scroll assisted by Merilda Senecaut, Helen Helgeson, Martha La Favre, Norma Mickey, and Gloria Munson. Don Oxenreider has just tripped over Marianne Kail's bicycle rack. Phyllis Carlson, June Bently, Clara Cunningham, Eina Nielsen, and Phyllis Brightman, five lovely nurses, are rushing up with Dr. R. W. Shropshire. Don will be okey!

Jim Gousseff, master of ceremonies for this glorious occasion, is about to introduce Shirley Stephens, famous debater, who will try to talk Mary Ann out of her picture. In the far corner of the arena I see Rosemary Hector half asleep. Evidently she was out too late last Saturday night. C. B. Campbell, the current heart throb of the bobby-soxers, is now on the stage while his assistant, Dave Baridon, passes out drool cups to all the females present.

Here come Marge and Bob as inseparable as ever; they are followed by Harlan and Dorothy. Paul Larson has just stopped them trying to get rid of his hot dogs with the pickle in the middle and the mustard on top. Paul's chief selling point is that the buns are made by that great home economist, Alice Ammentorp—'nuff said! Here comes Shirley "yours in rhythm" Slocum dragging her marimba behind her.

The Veloz and Yolanda of the age, Don Dixon and Nancy Phillips, are now giving their interpretation of the "Ruz-eel Rouh". Howard Smith is their interpreter. Dick Caplan is about to accompany those Andrew Sister as they sing his latest romantic ballad, "Wuffery Wolf". Marjorie Bauserman is on the stage doing a ballet dance. My, my, is that Ed Wigton I see standing off stage drooling. Here come Macky Gunn and Bonnie Halterman looking as always like something out of Vogue. They've grown out of the Seventeen stage.

And there's Jack Perkins with another "butch". Andy Buntz just came tramping in from Alaska covered with ice and snow. Paul Johns, Wayne Allen, Jack Beghtol, Bill Stouffer, and Charles Evans, Andy's old colleagues, are joyously welcoming him home. Jack Judkins is triumphantly waving his junior college diploma which he just received.

And now—the unveiling. The portrait is STUPENDOUS. Is there a doctor in the house? This is awful! All of the girls are fainting. Down they go, one by one—Kathryn Williams, Ruth Weeks, Beverly Crozier, Elaine Clark, Evelyn Strait, Norma Rees, Mary Ruark, Carmen Bernardino, Beverly Ahrold, Dorothy Bennett, Joan Gabel and Mary K. Thompson—and more, more, more. Wait. They're coming to; they're rushing toward the door.

Ahhhh—John Japhet and Jerry Pike have saved the day. And now while Jerry Griffith is circling overhead dropping red and black pom-poms, Gary Dalby is frantically snapping pictures. This has been a grand day, a GRAND day. The outstanding class of June '46 has come through again. Let's hope they'll always do so.

Famous Jury Trials

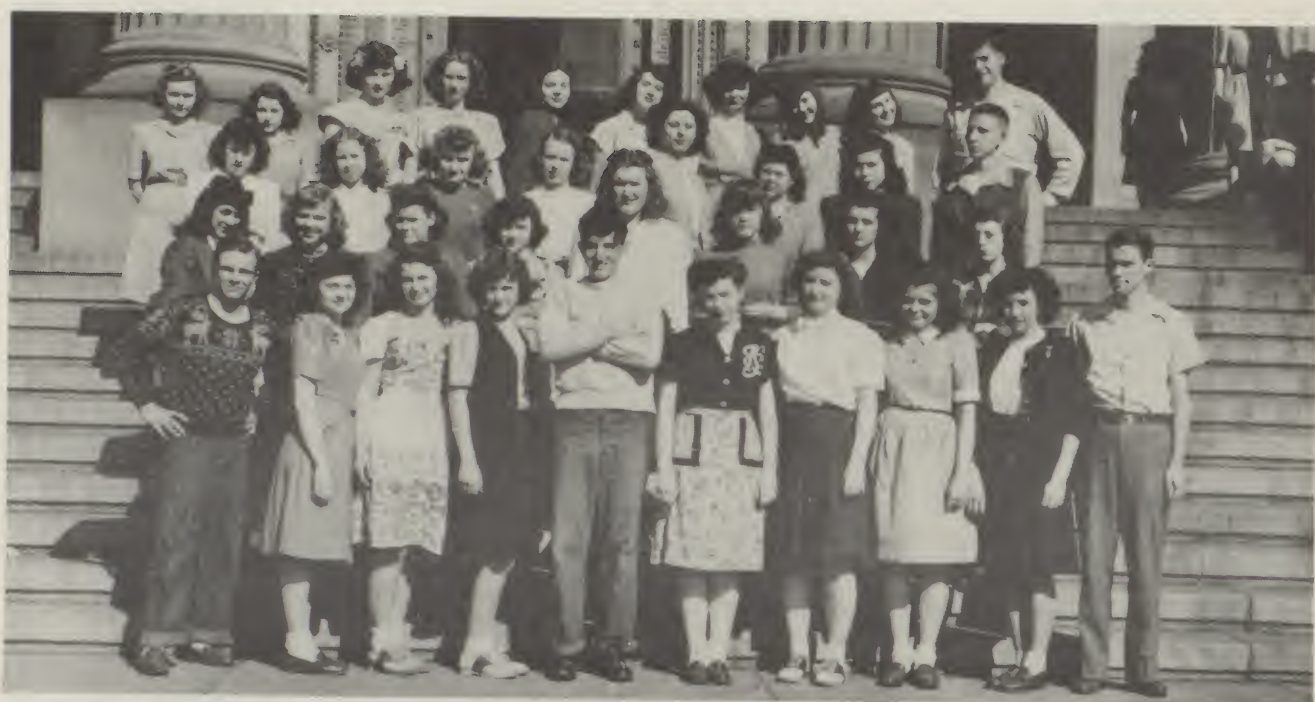

The Student Council is the governing body of East High School. It is selected by the students to represent them in all school activities. Through this organization, student opinions are given which often times the faculty does not recognize when given only by an individual. It is through this democratic procedure that the school is kept running so smoothly.

How is the council chosen? In each and every home room, at the beginning of the semester, two students are elected, one for the member of the council, the other as an alternate. At the first meeting of the group, officers are elected to lead the student body in all the activities. This year the officers chosen were Paul Sloan, president; Jack Perkins, vice-president; and Jerri Harrison, secretary.

The largest task accomplished was that of the lunch room. It has been a hard task to make some students realize that they should be more considerate of other people. Other activities sponsored by the council are the Red Cross drive, organizing school parties and many others.

Big Town

East High is indeed a Big Town and the Scroll staff manages to cover the news in our own Big Town just as well as Steve and Lorelei.

Patsy Greider, the editor-in-chief, is ably assisted by Annabel Green, Bette Augustine, Joan Armann, and Ruthanne Castel, news editors; Marian Rasmussen, editorial editor; and Jerri Harrison, sports editor. According to Mr. Stratton the editorial advisor, the Scroll staff this year is one of the best staffs he has ever had.

The other faculty advisors are Miss Harriet Macy, art, and Mr. Leslie Olsen, the business manager.

Getting the paper published and into the hands of the student body every two weeks is a difficult job, but our fine staff always manages to give us the best in news on time.

Can You Top This?

"Can You Top This?" presents stories and jokes which it hopes cannot be topped. The Quill Staff also presents a book which it hopes cannot be topped.

The staff is headed this year by Bob Mohr, editor, and Annabel Green, associate editor. Mr. Stratton is our hard-working editorial advisor.

The Quill Staff spent the first week in reading and studying the reference books trying to get ideas to make this Quill the best we have ever had.

After discussing this material the staff was divided into various groups to work on the different sections of the book. The job of these sections is to plan the page lay-out, see that pictures for the sections are taken, and write the necessary copy. There are four sections: Introduction, Seniors, Organizations, and Sports.

Between the Book-ends

The library staff works very hard to help students find the necessary material in the library. They are also responsible for keeping the room quiet so that studying can be done with as little disturbance as possible. Miss Larson directs all the helpers including the students in the book room. These check out, receive, and put away books coming from various teachers. They perform their duties with care and are very conscientious about their tasks.

Careers in the Making

This efficient group on the clerical staff is selected from the different classes in the stenographic department. These students work in the different offices of Mr. Prichard, Mr. Williams, Miss Helreich, Mrs. Clark, and the main office. They receive and deliver telephone calls, take dictation for letters, and do other odd, necessary jobs. This staff is doing a good job and at the same time is getting training in their probable future field of work.

Listening Post

"May I see your pass?" This can be heard almost any time of the day at any monitor post. It is the duty of every student serving as a monitor to check and see that no one is in the halls during class time without a pass signed by a teacher. This is, of course, a job which is hard to fulfill because it is so tempting to give permission to your friends to go through the halls without a pass. Too, it is a task to keep students out of the halls which are forbidden territory during the lunch hours, but our monitors do a good job and should be congratulated for it.

Lux Radio Theater

"Cash and Carrie", a three act comedy, was presented this semester by the dramatics classes of East High.

Everyone who came to the play saw excellent acting on the part of all the cast. They also had many side-splitting laughs over Carrie and her problems with Uncle Omar, lost options, and her children.

Much of the success of the production is due to the ability of Mrs. Juniata Laser, dramatics director and teacher at East.

Ushers

Every radio station must have ushers to keep the programs running smoothly, and so our station has ushers to keep assemblies running smoothly. They help to keep order during assemblies and enforce the necessary regulations for fine programs.

Their biggest problem comes with the Alumni assembly every year. They must see that all the alumni have good seats.

To this faithful group the students must give thanks for the efficient way the assemblies operate at East.

Melody Parade

The band is truly a melody parade which brings pleasure and happiness to everyone who is fortunate to hear them. But behind this flow of musical notes we see Mr. McWhirter leading the band in many practice sessions filled with hard work.

We students of East High are really grateful for the swell music furnished at football games, assemblies, and various programs. This is something we seniors will long remember.

The orchestra is indeed a melody parade. Under the direction of Mr. McWhirter our orchestra brings to the students entertainment of the best quality. A lot of work goes into the making of such an organization, but the highlight of the year, the spring music festival, shows that effort is worthwhile.

The orchestra presents a fine opportunity for all students who have an interest in music to develop their technique and appreciation of the best music.

Great Moments In Music

"Sing, sing, sing for the singing, the whole day long." Such an Hour of Charm is seldom heard from any group, other than the East High boys' and girls' glee clubs. There has not been much occasion for the two clubs to sing but from past experience, we know that they are excellent singers. The main event of the season, of course, is the Spring Festival, which turns out to be the great finale of the year. Anyone who wishes to be in the glee clubs may join, but it is counted as a subject, meaning one receives one fourth of a credit in a semester for the work. The purpose of the glee clubs is mainly to give the students that wish, a chance to develop their voices and learn to blend their voices with each other. With Miss Sigrid Greenhill as the able director, the clubs accomplish this task.

The Hour of Charm

The choir has given many an "hour of charm" to our school and various outside organizations. We are proud to present this fine group of music students in the Quill this year. They've really done a fine job this semester.

Fifty-three members compose the choir, and Miss Sigrid Greenhill directs and arranges the programs. She deserves much of the credit for the choir's success.

Included in this semester's programs were the Music Festival, Paramount Theater, (during Holy Week), and exchange program with Lincoln High School, and music at the senior activities.

We are looking forward to another successful year in music from our grand East High Choir.

David Ward, Harlan Snow, Bob Peterson, Accompanist, Dick Hadley, Eddie Norem.

Songfellows

East High's songfellows, the boys' quartet, has one new member this year, Dick Hadley, and three back from last year, David Ward, Harlan Snow, and Eddie Norem. This year the boys have sung at Wesley Methodist Church, the monthly Thursday night meetings of the teachers, and various junior highs.

Song Shop

East has its own "Song Shop" on Wednesday and Friday mornings when the girls' sextet meets. These six girls with their accompanist have sung at many interesting places, such as the radio broadcast of "Careers in the Making," at the Mother-Daughter Tea, and twice at the Hoyt Sherman Place.

Row 1: June Dwyer, Gloria Spillers, Betty Exline, Shirley Mason.

Daily Devotions

Daily Devotions are very much needed, but not many of us realize it. These were two groups of students that met every day this year, though, during the first and second lunch hours to share with each other the worship of God. Giving up their noon-day movie to take part in this fellowship, the students felt that it was very worthwhile. They would meet, and sing hymns known through all churches. Often some students would prepare a discussion on some certain passage from the Bible, and occasionally an outside speaker would be asked to come in and express his own ideas of some passage.

There are also two groups of officers. The first lunch hour officers are Stanley Franklin, president; Virginia Clement, vice-president; and Harriet Gustafson, secretary-treasurer. The second lunch hour officers are Howard Marshall, president; and Virginia Nine, secretary-treasurer.

Short Wave

The Latin Club, or we should say Sodalitas Romana, really lends a Roman atmosphere to East High, particularly the evening they have the Roman Banquet and Wedding which is traditional with the Latin Club.

Miss Cummings, the Latin teacher, is the sponsor. The Consul is Virginia Perry; Pro-consul, Sylvia Weeks; Scriba, Ellen Sideman; Quaestor, Jerry Graves; and Janitor, Ray Deaton. The purpose of the club is to stimulate and further our knowledge and interest in the Roman people.

Straight from Spain and with very little static. That's the Spanish Club. This year the club has run very smoothly under the capable direction of Miss Brewer, the Spanish teacher and club sponsor. The officers are: president, Shirley Rush; vice-president, Nadine Poweshiek; secretary, Diane Biddison; and treasurer, Gery Blaser.

The meetings, which are carried on as much as possible in Spanish, are of great interest to anyone who likes Spanish or our South American neighbors.

As You Like It

The Social Club is a new organization at East High. It is composed of representatives, either voluntary or elected, from the different home rooms whose duties are to help the social committee of the student council.

This club has been very helpful in the planning, decorating, and the carrying out of the Mardi Gras party, the Black Magic Ball, and other social affairs.

Hobby Lobby

Special Interest Club is the place to bring your hobbies, that is, is you intend to have fun. The president is Jack Beghtol; vice-president, Jerri Harrison; secretary, Marianne Kail; and treasurer, Jack Perkins. The club is sponsored by Mr. Yount.

A few of the activities that the club takes part in this semester are picnics, a breakfast, and excursions. If you want to make friends, have fun, and eat then the Special Interest Club is for you

CALLING ALL GIRLS

The Zetagatheaan is a program strictly for girls, whose purpose is to promote friendship among the girls in all the grades. The officers are: president, Gloria Spillers; vice-president, Jeanette Heaberlin; secretary, Peggye McGillivray; and treasurer, Bette Augustine.

The program is planned for fun and good times. A panel composed of boys and girls to discuss dates and boy-girl relationships, a picnic, and the student-teacher tea are just a few of the many activities that are carried out.

Another program for girls only is the Philomathean led by the president, Madonna Casson; vice-president, Beverly German; secretary, Wilma Prall; and treasurer, Delores Tweed. The faculty advisor is Miss Engleen.

The purpose of the club is to have fun, and by taking a quick glance at some the high-lights of their activities, it is easy to see they carried out their purpose. A picnic and a treasure hunt headed the list of activities.

Lila Salyers, Phyllis Winegardner, Arlene Munger, Margaret Brady.

LIFE CAN BE BEAUTIFUL

The Crafts Club this semester is unusually small, having only four members. The officers are Margaret Brady, president, and Lila Salyer, vice-president, with Mrs. Clement as the able sponsor. These girls have been working hard on different pieces. Some of the different kinds of work are on metal, wood, weaving, stenciling, and block printing. Working with these things just proves how beautiful life can be if our attention is called to that fact.

Life can be beautiful, especially when it is the Brush and Palette Club which is trying to emphasize that fact so long forgotten. Under the supervision of Miss Harriet Macy, this club was organized in the interest of the students who like to paint and want some outside help from the teacher. Chosen to lead this talented group for this year was Mary Ann Gebhardt, president; Ray Signola, vice-president; and Mary Hamling, secretary.

The All American Boy

The purpose of the Boys' Hi-Y is to build all-American boys. The outstanding club motto is "Clean speech, Clean sports, Clean living."

Every Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. the club has a very interesting speaker who talks on such different subjects as art, baseball, and photography.

The officers of the club are Jack Rider, president; Paul Sloan, vice-president; Dick Hadley, secretary; Don Oxenreider, treasurer. The sponsors are Bob Hanbury and Don Taylor.

A Woman of America

The Girls' Hi-Y, sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. and Mrs. M. L. Parks, is building future women of America.

The girls have had a box supper, played several schools in basketball, had a joint meeting with the Lincoln High girls, and had a speech on the ideal girls by Jim Stanall.

The club under the leadership of its officers, president, Patty Parks; vice-president, Betty Borthwick; and secretary-treasurer, Peggy Crank, has had a very interesting year.

The Army Hour

Bang! Bang! Bang! The Rifle Club is again spending its weekly visit at the armory which the army furnishes them along with three guns and a quantity of ammunition.

When the boys turn in the necessary targets, they get various awards leading up to the club monograms received when they reach Sharpshooter Bar VI.

Mr. J. B. Heifner sponsors the club. The officers are Emil Arbtin, president; Bill Gnade, vice-president; Austin Greider, secretary; Bill Cook, treasurer.

Bachelor's Children

Mr. Seevers is again sponsoring his young followers in those two noted games of chess and checkers. Mr. Seevers with the officers—Jim Gousseff, president; Duane Evans, vice-president; Harlan Snow, secretary; and Richard Shropshire, treasurer—afford a program they hope will cultivate good thinking and interest in chess and checkers. Each semester the club holds an intramural chess tournament where every member can spend many pleasant hours in excellent competition with the other club members.

Quiz Kids

The Science Club is made up of ambitious students who, not satisfied with things as they stand, are eager to learn more about why things are so. Mr. Barnard sponsors the club in Room 116. The officers are Ted Boller, president; Eddie Biddison, vice-president; Barbara Moon, secretary-treasurer.

Some of the many things the club is discussing during the year are x-ray tubes, the slide rule, fluorescent lighting, and the chemistry and physics handbook.

Served With A Song

Has everyone turned in his gym clothes? This is just one of the many worries of the gym monitors, but even under difficulties these monitors are still bright and cheerful. The monitors also take care of Miss Spencer's and Mr. Rump's offices, giving them more time to spend with their gym classes.

Everyone wants to thank these monitors for a job well done. The monitors have really been a big help to everyone.

12A GIRLS' CLUB

Another 12A girls' club is sponsored by Mrs. McPherren, the mother of one of the officers. The officers are: president, Nadine Poweshiek; vice-president, Martha Peterson; secretary, Charlene McPherren; and treasurer, Rosemary Hector.

This informal club has fun for its purpose. Every Wednesday night the club does something interesting. They have hikes, picnics, and speakers. The 12A girls have indeed succeeded in getting together and having fun.

Row 1: Dorothy Nittler, Genevieve Woodley, Nadine Poweshiek, Charlene McPherren; Row 2: Marilyn Peterson, Rosemary Hector, Fern Titus.

This is a club for 12A girls only, where they can discuss their problems freely. The president is Colleen Hutton; vice-president, Phyllis Carlson; secretary, Anedrea Harless; and treasurer, Bonnie Hargis.

The purpose of the 12A Club is to get the senior A girls together and have lots of fun. The activities of this last semester, consisting of excursions, picnics, speakers, and an early breakfast, show that their purpose was carried out.

A girls' club for 12B girls only is something new for East High. The name of the club is G' n T. The president is Carolyn Butler; vice-president, Marjorie Truman; secretary, Vera De Vries; and treasurer, Vera Southard.

The purpose of the club is to get the 12B girls together and have a good time. A breakfast on the morning of March 21 was one of the highlights of their activities.

Behind the Scenes

Lights! Camera! Action! During the two lunch hours no one ever stops to think who runs the movie machine, turns out the lights or who tries to keep the students quiet. It is the movie operators and monitors who are always behind the scenes. Mr. Walter Stevens directs the work. Of course, nobody forgets the girls who stand at the door and take our pennies from us.

The electricians and stagehands are the boys, under the direction of Mr. Yount, who play an important role, always behind the scenes, during assemblies and plays. They are to take care of all the lighting effects and the stage settings for the different events during the semester. They are never viewed by the public but deserve much credit for the fine work they are doing.

The wardrobe girls take care of the costumes used in different assemblies and plays taking place throughout the year. They are under the supervision of Miss Hargis. Whenever costumes are needed it is these girls who are responsible for them, checking them out and in. They keep the room down in the basement, used only for costumes, very clean and in orderly fashion at all times.

Riding the Range

Ruling the cooking ranges this year, Mrs. Maude Wiggenjost heads seven hardworking ladies who prepare and serve all the food used in our cafeteria.

To have the food ready for first lunch, the ladies arrive here at 6:00 a.m. They also prepare all non-perishables the day before. The job of dish-washing alone requires the work of four ladies from 11:45 to 2:00.

We should show our appreciation to these ladies by our manners in the cafeteria.

Rise and Shine

In the morning our school's custodians rise and shine long before most of us have even begun to think of rolling out. Early and late they work, keeping a clean pleasant atmosphere in our school.

Leading them in their duties around the school is Mr. William Edwards. We want to thank these men for the fine service they have given the school. Let's show our appreciation by helping keep our building clean and neat.

Row 1: B. Bayless, H. Davis, B. Edwards, E. Walker; Row 2: H. Stone, E. Mohler, C. Burke, C. Robinson, S. Swanson.

At Your Service

Behind the studio broadcast there are always many people who work hard to see that the studio staff is well prepared for their part in the program. In station E-A-S-T there are many who work behind the scenes for little glory. The girls behind the cash registers in the cafeteria and the girls behind the candy counters are a few of the many who keep our staff well prepared. The students of East High thank you.

Daily Almanac

These messengers are the students who help keep the daily absence records. They receive little recognition for the fine job they do, but they are really giving the school a fine service.

Chosen from study hall at the beginning of the semester, these messengers daily go to different classrooms collecting absence slips which they later file in the office boxes where the teachers can easily find them. The messengers then return to study hall.

Row 1: Nadine Barrer, Dorothy Nittler, Josephine Griffin, Marjorie Truman, Joane Gabel; Row 2: Marvel Sloan, Vera McFarland, Delia Fulton, Virginia Desch, Nancy Van Horn.

Class Will

We, the members of the one and only class graduating from East High in June, 1946, believing ourselves to be in sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To all present and future students of East High we bequeath the happiness and the opportunities for success which we, the graduating class, have enjoyed in our three years at East High. Sadly we also leave the many nights of home work which we love so much.

Jerri Harrison leaves her pep and enthusiasm to Beverly Kessell who has plenty of her own.

Howard Smith leaves, but takes his good times with him.

Jim Hedlund leaves his "gift of gab" to Jerry Bishop.

Mary Jean Davidson bequeaths her neatness to Ruth Martin.

Joe Ambrose leaves his height to Harlan Gee.

Laura Evans and Marianne Kail leave their overcrowded locker to the next two people who can manage to keep the door shut.

Harlan Snow leaves his voice to David Ward.

Helen Helgeson bequeaths her lovely red hair to Mary Denton.

Johnny Lingenfelter leaves his tales of life on the farm to Jack Peters.

Maxine Gunn leaves her ability to sneak into home room five minutes (or more) late to Peggy Goldfarb.

Crom Campbell leaves. (Too bad, girls! Better luck next time.)

Clara Cunningham leaves her sweet ways to Patty Carlisle.

Jack Usher wills his "wim and wigor" to Stanley Franklin, but takes all the fun he has had with him.

Nadine Poweshiek bequeaths her cute smile to Phyllis Kinley.

Bob Mohr leaves Mr. Stratton wondering if he will ever find a more capable editor.

Shirley Gardner leaves Annabelle to keep the boys happy.

Duane Evans leaves his car to anyone who has the nerve to drive it.

Mary and Ruth leave, together as they came, but leave their little "Sis" to carry on the Weeks' personality.

Bob Anderson leaves his title of class president to the next person with enough "political power" to get it.

Dorothy Kranovich leaves her beauty to Marilyn Metcalf.

Don Dixon leaves his curly hair to Ronnie Turner.

Richard Shropshire takes all of his unwordly double talk with him leaving us poor students wondering.

Cleo Mullens wills her golden vocal cords to Shirley Mason.

Dick Hadley leaves his telephone number to all the East High girls (6-8588) but remember, girls, telephones are still hard to get.

David Shrader leaves his teasing ways to Kenneth Kline.

Dorothy Reuter wills her ability to make friends to Jeannette Heaberlin.

Byron Werges takes all of his "gorgeous" ties with him and leaves Mr. Stratton to carry on alone.

Fern Overton leaves her cute dimples to Judy Green.

Johnny Martin takes Dot and all the swell times they've had together with him.

Beverly Comegys' cute ways are left behind for Shirley Rush. Take good care of them Shirley.

Don Oxenreider, God's gift to the women, bequeaths his "way" with the ladies to Paul Erickson.

Patsy Greider throws all of her hard work and worries she has had about deadlines out the window with this thought, "Heaven help the person who catches them!"

Marian Rasmussen's all-round likeableness is left behind for Madonna Casson.

Paul Sloan donates his track ability to Dave Sisam. (He's got plenty to spare and probably won't miss it.)

Mary Anne Gebhardt leaves her artistic ability to Betty Wilson.

Andy Buntz bequeaths his secret formula for getting out of work to Jack Overturff.

Louise Elifrits Reed leaves to join her husband. Lucky gal!

Paul Larson leaves his swimming ability to Ronnie Helms.

Gloria Munson leaves her big brown eyes to Bernadine Haltom.

Jim Gousseff wills his "bright" remarks to Carl Nielson.

Kathryn Williams leaves her giggles to Shirley Griffiths who really doesn't need any more.

Charles Codner wills his ability to get stuck in the mud at the right time to Louie Smith.

Annabel Green is willing to leave her record of one's to any of you struggling students who might need them.

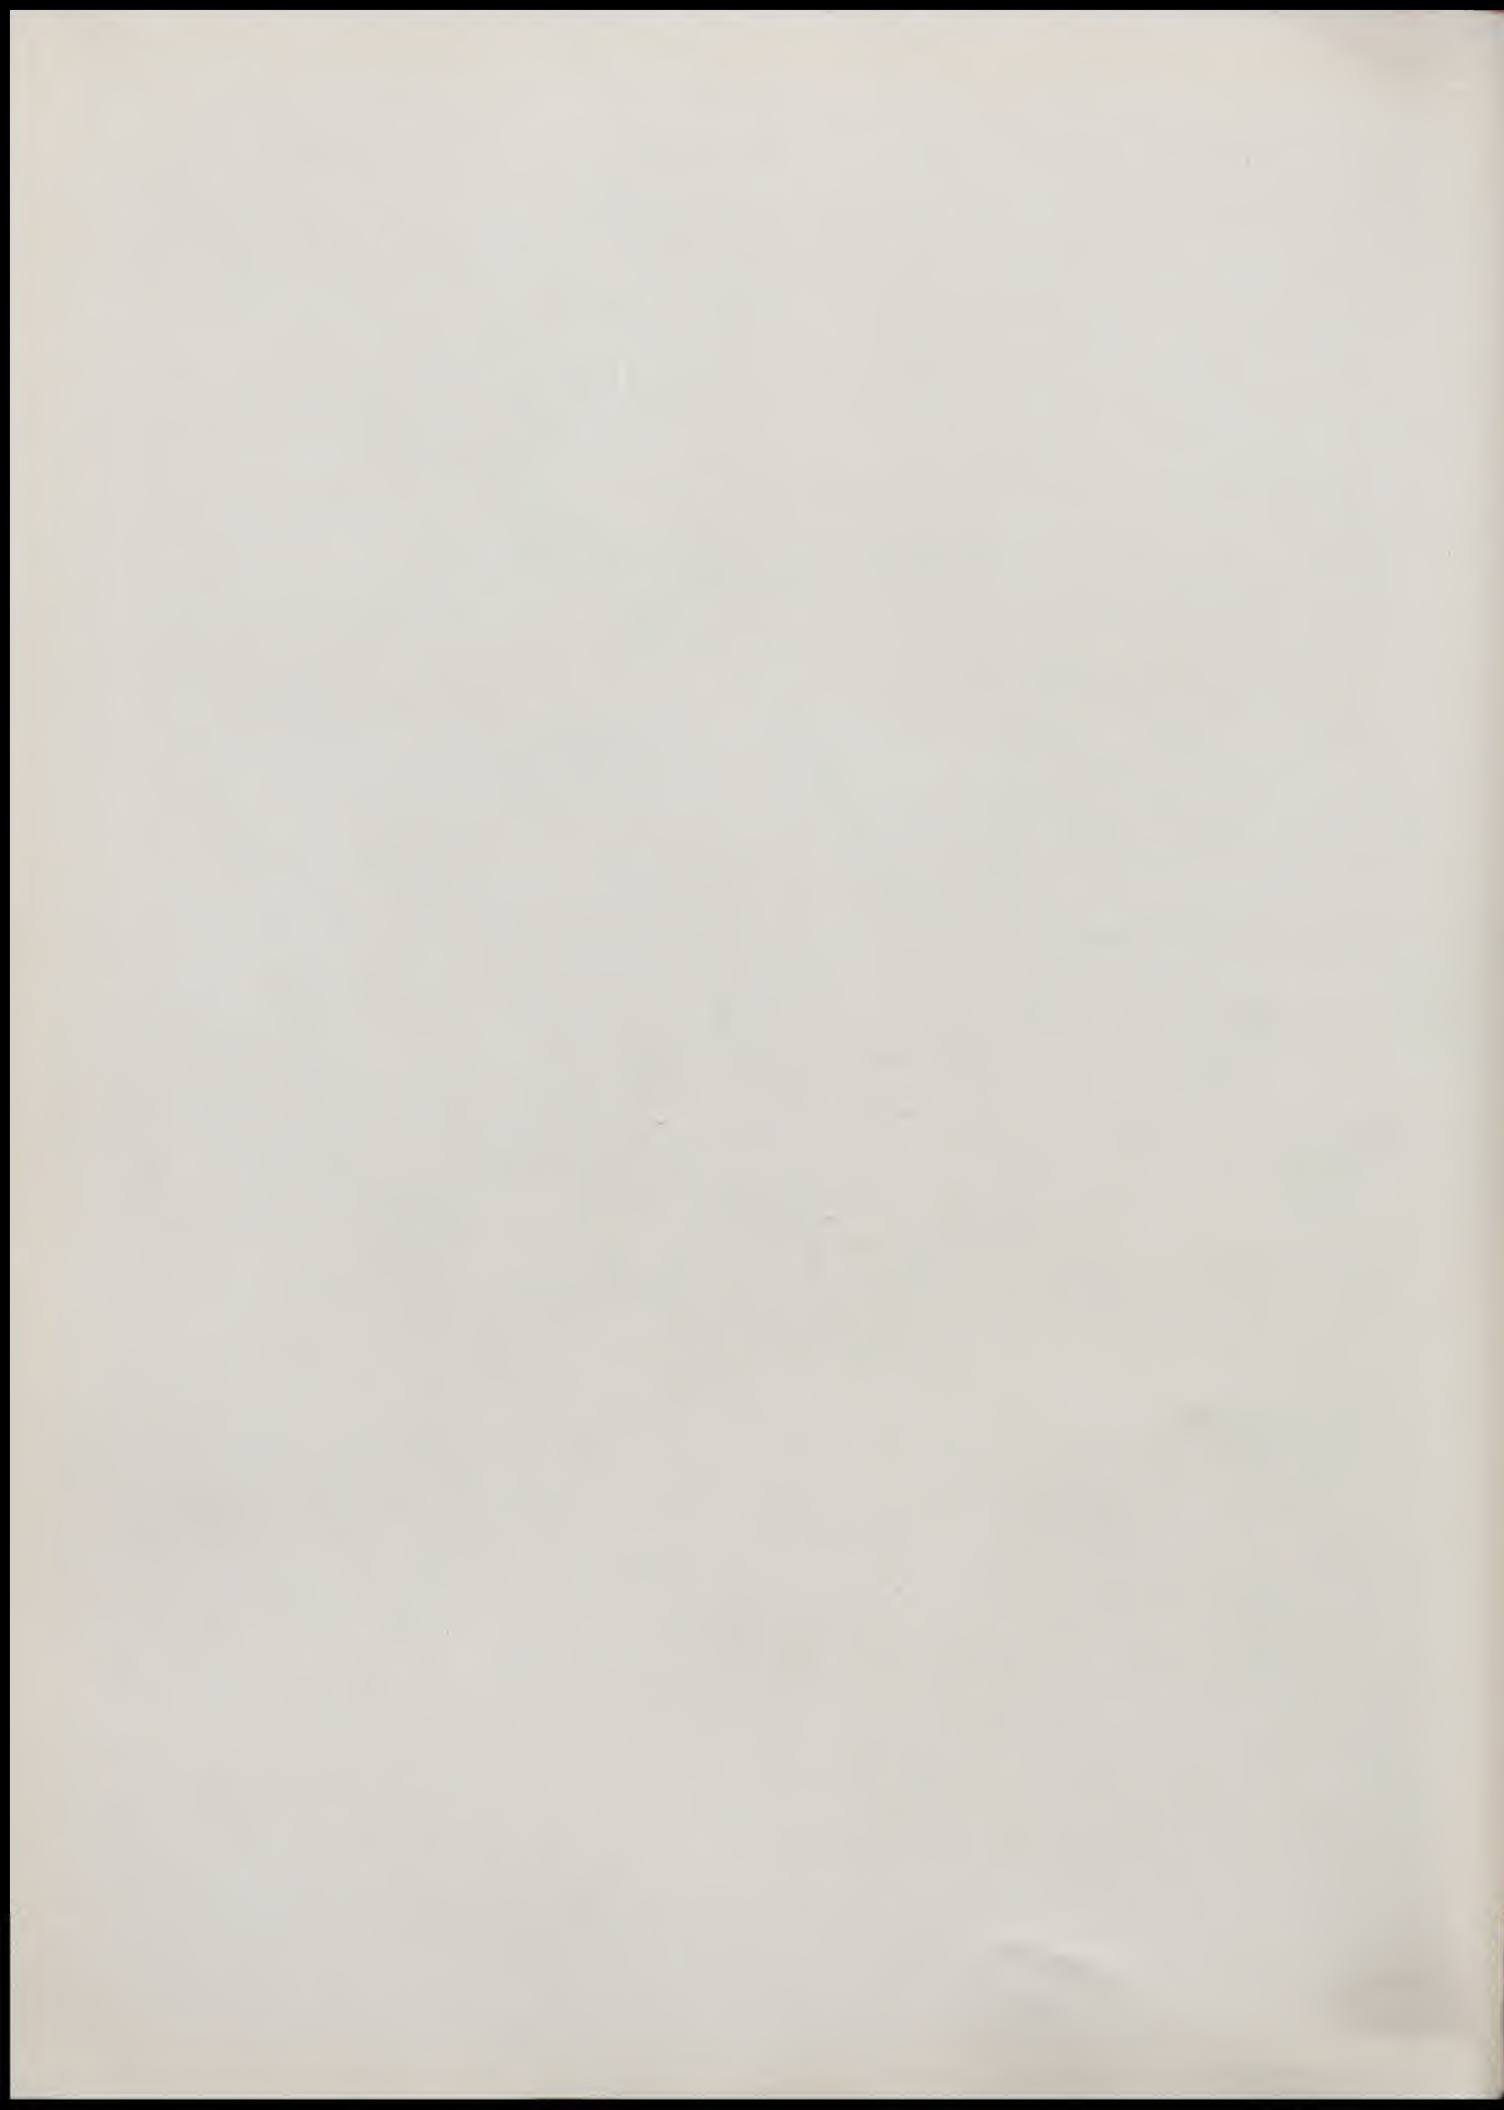

Russ Stonier leaves his good looks to Stanley McClintock.

Gloria Spillers bequeaths her many sweaters to all the girls in East who are wondering what to wear the next day.

Jack Beghtol wills his ability to annoy people to Butch Reynolds and Raymond Southard, knowing full well that it would be too much for any one person to handle.

Therefore, in the presence of witnesses, the class of June, '46, signs their last will and testament.

Season's Review

Our basketball team this year was one of the most successful teams East High has ever had. The team did not win all of its games, but at times showed strength enough to rank as one of the best. It was the only team that defeated North in City Series play and gave Mason City one of its two losses in the Big Seven.

After losing the first game of the season to Tech, East won seven games straight, defeating East and West Waterloo, Fort Dodge, Mason City, Lincoln, Dowling, and North. Then we lost a tough game to Roosevelt, ending the first half of the season.

Marty Carlson, one of East High's great basketball players, graduated at mid-semester, and his loss was deeply felt.

After defeating Tech and Lincoln, East lost five games straight. Then the team regained their strength and defeated East and West Waterloo. In the district meet East defeated Lincoln again and then lost a close game to Ames High.

The team finished in a second place tie with North and West Waterloo in the Big Seven and took third in the city.

Paul Sloan, speedy guard, and Jack Rider, snappy center, were placed on the first and second all-city teams, respectively.

Much of the credit for the play of the team must go to Mike Augustine who worked hard to develop a winning team.

2nd Basketball Team

The second team did not have a too impressive record, but improved throughout the season. They won at least one game from almost every team they played. Many of the games they lost were by close margins. Losses to some of the teams, especially those from out of town, must be attributed to the fact that those teams use their reserves against our second team. Every one of the members of the second team worked very hard every night all season to improve his play. Most of the boys on the second team this year will be on the first team next year and by their hard work all season this year, we are sure that next year's first team will be a fine one. Much of the credit for the improvement of the second team should go to the coach, Mike Augustine, who worked hard to develop a smooth-working team. He was ably assisted by Mr. C. Smith, who also deserves much credit. All in all, the team worked very hard and did quite well considering the stiff opposition that they had to meet.

T R A C K S E A S O N

Track is East High's greatest sport. For years, Mike Augustine has led East High to glory in track competition throughout the state. Track awards fill up half our trophy cases. Truly, we are a track high school. But a school can't live on past glory, for the underdog is always trying to knock off the champ. Each year the team must train hard to remain on top. This year the boys started in January running cross-country at the capitol grounds.

In the first meet of the season, the city indoor, the team retained their championship by nosing out a tough North High team. By their fine work in this meet we are confident that they will have a very successful season, but they still have a tough season left.

We have only a few lettermen from last year's championship club left, headed by Paul Sloan, one of East High's great track stars. Charles Gregory is assistant coach to Mike Augustine, who is now completing 20 years with East. Many of the boys out for track have a bigger goal; they are getting in shape for next fall's football season. Best of luck to all trackmen.

We got the pep,
We got the steam;
We got the coach,
We got the team.

Yes, it's pep time at East High, but that isn't new because it is always pep time here at East since we are full of school spirit, win or lose. Who makes up our loud yells, who leads them, what makes them click? You're right, it's our favorites, the cheerleaders, all decked in the school colors, always ready with a yell, and a real tribute to East. When the going is tough and we are behind, they will lead us in yells to encourage the team. When we are out in front, they keep our steam built up.

Mr. Kenneth Stratton is their coach, and helps the boys very much with new yells. This year's team is composed of Charles Codner, captain, Louis Smith, Byron Werges, Russell Stonier, and alternate, Stanley Franklin. The four boys each wear a letter on their sweater spelling out East. All but two of this year's team will graduate. This swell bunch of fellows have had the backing of the whole school. Let's keep up the good work and back our future teams.

This year's wrestling team brought great honor to our school by winning the city championship. The boys on the team who were individual city champions are Alfred DeBakey, Bob Whitehurst, Dick Eisenlauer, Jerry Pike, Jack Overturff, and Ed Jones. All of the boys fought hard to bring the team to this championship. In the district meet the team finished in third place with three men qualifying for the state meet. Ed Jones did the best individually in the state meet by placing third in the 145 pound class. The team worked hard all season and developed rapidly under the able direction of their coach, Mr. Gregory, who always turns out a good team.

Swimming at East has long been handicapped by the undersized swimming pool, but we have always turned out a team that will challenge any school. Scotty Russell, the team's capable coach, works his boys hard to develop them for the dual and city meets that they participate in during the season. The 1945-46 team showed a fine improvement over the past few teams, and in the state meet qualified and beat out Lincoln of Des Moines, Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids, and Keosauqua for sixth place. The teammates are Ronald Helms, Bob Gilmore, Jack Usher, crawlstroke; Roy Doop, Bob Dutton, John Rex, Frank Avitt, breaststroke; Paul Larson, Edgar Wilkinson, backstroke; Bill Daniels, diving. Mr. Russell urges more boys to come out next year so we can break the bad jinx we've had in swimming competition for years.

GOLF ★ TENNIS

GOLF—BOYS

East High is hoping for a good golf team this year and, as usual, we will probably get one. This year's team does not have any returning lettermen on it, but it looks as though it might develop into a good team. In the first meet of the season the team lost to Valley High, but much needed experience was gained. Mr. Rump is coaching the team for the first time this year, but we know he will develop a good team if he possibly can.

Row 1: Derald Leaming, Bob Peterson, Ronald Sass, Jay Leaming, Joe Hanna;

Golf is a sport which stresses individual play instead of teamwork. Each boy must work and practice hard every night to develop his work. The boys on the team start practice early in the spring and work all season to bring their score down closer and closer to par. With this kind of attitude toward their game, we know these boys will develop into a fine team.

BOYS' TENNIS

Spring, sunshine, and dry weather all indicate tennis time, and our tennis team starts training early so they will be in fine shape for their meets. They will encounter North, Lincoln, and Roosevelt in dual meets. Also, they will participate in the Big 7, the district, and state meets. We feel the team will come through successfully this year, as there are many lettermen on the squad. Tennis has very little school support compared to most sports, so from now on let's get out and cheer for our tennis team.

Coach "Gus"

Basketball, swimming, and football are enjoyed during our gym classes. There isn't a person in high school, if physically fit, who doesn't have a physical education class at least once a week. Most enjoy their gym classes and take them as often as possible. Mr. "Gus" Rump is our new gymnasium teacher, and he is everyone's friend. His leadership gives us new and different exercises, which help keep the young people of America fit for a good strong life. Physical education teaches the student to have quick action, strength, and best of all coordination and teamwork.

Miss Helen Spencer, the girls' gymnasium director, and Mr. A. Y. Russell, the swimming instructor, round out the gymnasium staff.

Are athletics limited to just boys at East High? Of course not. All girls at East may participate in nearly any sport such as hiking, tennis, baseball, basketball, swimming, and tumbling if they join the Girls' Athletic Association. By reporting their activities to Miss Helen Spencer, the G.A.A. supervisor, they may earn points toward a letter. Three hundred points earn a numeral, but it takes 500 for a letter. The girls work and play hard for these points, but are rewarded by a better mind and body.

GIRLS' TUMBLING TEAM

SQUAD LEADERS

The girls who are out for golf must practice faithfully to develop a good team. The girls on the squad have intra-squad competition and also engage in meets with other schools. The highlight of the season is the city meet with North and Roosevelt. We know the girls will do their best and come through with great honors. More girls are needed out for this activity. This year's team is under the able coaching of Mr. Rump.

Miss Spencer has a fine squad this year with almost the same team they had last fall, which tied for second in the city meet. Tennis is an individual sport except for doubles, which requires perfect teamwork. This skill is practiced at the Amos Hiatt courts. The girls on the team engage in inter-scholastic competition plus a lot of practice in intra-squad competition. All of this competition gives the girls points toward a G.A.A. letter.

Athletic managers (cage monkeys to most) are the men behind our teams. Under Mr. Rump's supervising they keep our athletes equipped, and do a fine job of it. It's a lot of work every night after school, but they become acquainted with all the athletes and have a swell time. So next time you see our teams on the playing field, give a cheer for the cage monkeys.
